

Towns County Herald's Sporting News

GMF Beauty Pageant Contestants

(L to R) Miranda Carballo, Cherokee County, NC; Holly Wright, Union County; Emilee Loudermilk, Habershan County; Amber Allen, Towns County; 2008 Miss Georgia Mountain Fair, Kaylyn Hopper, Rabun County; Lacey Rogers, Clay County, NC; Kayla Hyatt, Towns County; Jessica Phillips, Towns County; Sarah Swanson, Towns County and Hannah Coffey, Union County. Photo by Jim/Lisa Bryant

More incredible eatables ideas

Kids and adults alike enjoy the novelty of cooking on a campfire and it is especially enhance when cooking with "gimmick" cooking and instruments. The incredible edibles can provide campers with hours of fun and excitement around a campfire both in preparation and consumption.

BRAISE: Saute' in a pan then cook slowly covered with a liquid

Aluminum foil
Tin can stove "Hobo" stove
Dutch oven
Pit cooking

BROIL: Cook by direct heat

Can barbecue
Reflector oven
Cooking directly on the coals

FRY: Cooking with a small amount of fat/oil
Aluminum foil
Tin can stove
Dutch oven
Hot rock cooking

ROAST: Cooking with dry heat
Tin can stove
Dutch oven
Tin can oven
Reflector oven
Pit cooking
Dingle fan roaster

STEAM: Cooking with moist heat

Aluminum foil
Dutch oven
STEW: Long time cooking in a small amount of liquid
Dutch oven
Pit cooking

TCHS coaches ready for GMF

JIM BRYANT

Sports Writer

The Towns County Indians coaches are readying for the fall sports season by getting ready for the Georgia Mountain Fair. His year the coaches from softball, basketball and football are operating food concessions booths at the fair to help raise money for their various programs. With the economy still riding the low end of the totem pole, the coaches decided to help out with fund raising by operating several food booths available at the fair. Come by and support their efforts.

Football coach Kyle Langford mops to ready the football booth for the Georgia Mountain Fair. Photo by Jim/Lisa Bryant

Bank of Hiawasee Centennial Celebration Road Race

Photos by Lowell Nicholson