

Tristan Ree Waldroup

Mr. and Mrs. Jason Scott Waldroup would like to announce the birth of their son, Tristan Ree Waldroup. Born on September 8, 2010 at Union General Hospital, delivered by W. David Breedlove, MD. The birth weight of the baby was 6 pounds, 12 ounces and he was 20 ½ inches long. Mrs. Waldroup is the former Sonya Cheyenne Nations. NT(Sep15,Z3)SH

Birth

Adaim Dodanim Mejia Hernandez and Esteban Isaac Salazar would like to announce the birth of their son, Esteban Emmanuel Salazar Meija, Born on September 9, 2010 at Union General Hospital, delivered by W. David Breedlove, MD. The birth weight of the baby was 6 pounds, 12 ounces and he was

19 inches long. T(Sep15,G3)SH

DAR September 2010 meeting

Chapter National Society Daughters of the American Revolution, (right) Edwina Bell, Past Regent Georgia State NDAR is pictured with Old Unicoi Trail DAR members (front) Eloise Wolfersteig, Vice Regent, OUTDAR, and (left) Margaret Wischmeyer, Regent (OUTDAR). Mrs. Bell presented a program entitled "The Beginning: Liberty and Justice—US Constitution."

State Society DAR Past Regent, NSDAR, presented a program entitled "The Beginning: Liberty and Justice—US

Constitution" at the September 11th meeting of the Old Uni-

Hey Sis

Edwina Bell, Georgia coi Trail Chapter of the National Society Daughters of the American Revolution. Mrs. Bell told the members fascinating facts about the Constitution, its signers, and about the Founding Fathers. The program was in keeping with the commemoration of the signing of the US Constitution and the observance of Constitution week on September 17-23. The meeting was held at the Blairs-

> The next meeting, a program, The Feedsack Program" will be presented by Audrey Hiers of Misty Mountain Quilters. It will be held on October 9th at the Blairsville Church of

ville Church of Christ on Hwy

Christ at 10:15 a.m. Old Unicoi Trail Chapter of the DAR serves Towns, Union, and Fannin Counties. Women who have a Revolutionary War patriot in their family histories, and who are interested in joining, should call Margaret Wischmeyer, Regent, at 706-632-9790. The Old Unicoi Trail home page is on line at http://oldunicoitrail. georgiastatedar.org. N(Sep15,C3)ac

Happy birthday, Kuy!

cious, Honey Crisp, Jonagold and Lodi, just to name a few.

Thyme To Cook

The Oaks Restaurant at The Ridges Resort

Executive Banquet Chef, Karl Engelmann

Apples: The quintessential

autumn fruit

over to the month of September, I instantly think of those beautiful bulbous fruits topped with brown sugar, roasted in my oven, and flanked with some luscious whipped vanilla cream and toasted almonds...

and find out a little more about the rose family and often referred to as "pomes". In fact, the science of apple cultivation is called "pomology". It is one of the, if not the most, widely cultivated fruits in the world with its origins hailing from western Asia and the Middle East. There are thousands of varieties grown worldwide and about 2500 grown just in spective, apples can be divided ies of apples containing the right amount of tannins and acidity suitable for cider production. They may be a little hard to come by at the grocery store so you may be better off just buying some cider vinegar are apples best for eating and incorporating into recipes in a raw state. There are a wide variety of cultivated types including Empire, Cortland, Gala, McIntosh, Red Deli-

2) Eating apples: These into four groups:

From a culinary pro-

1) Cider apples: Variet-

this perfect fall fruit!

Let's explore the apple

Apples are a relative of

Do you feel that nostal-

3) Cooking apples: These are apples that are ideal gic crispy chill in the evening air? Yep, me too and it makes for using in recipes that inme think of sage and cornvolve heat such as apple sauce, apple butter, chutneys, relishes bread stuffed roasted chicken, etc. Some of my favorite vacrunchy pumpkin seeds and, of course, fresh, tart and juicy rieties are Gravenstein, New-APPLES! In fact, as soon as town Pippin, Rome Beauty, I see the calendar page turn and York Imperial.

4) Dual purpose apples: These are apples that can hold their own as excellent eating apples but also moonlight as great cooking options as well. Some popular choices include the Granny Smith, Yellow Delicious, Fuji, Jonathan, and Winesap varieties.

When choosing the correct apple variety for your recipe it is also essential to keep other criteria in mind as well. Make sure you look for firm fruits that are free of blemishes, brown spots, bruises, or gashI can listen for a hollow sound, a good sign of proper internal structure. A little freckling is okay as long as the apples feel and sound good.

Apple Slaw 2/3 cup apple cider vinegar

2/3 cup honey 3 tablespoons chili oil

3 tablespoons soy sauce 2 tablespoons fresh grated gin-cup olive oil 2 granny smith apples, cored and thinly sliced One carrot julienned 2 green onions, thinly sliced

1 spring of cilantro, minced One half of a head of green cabbage, shredded ½ cup toasted almonds

In a small bowl, whisk the first five ingredients. Then, slowly add the olive oil while whisking. In another larger bowl, mix the apples, carrot, green onions, cilantro and cabbage. Next, add the dressing from the smaller bowl. Chill for at least an hour. Serve with the almonds garnishing the top. Great with teriyaki chicken and fried rice! NT(Sep15,A9)SH

Book signing at The Book Nook

Echoes across the Blue Ridge, Stories, Essays and Poems by Writers Living in and Inspired by the Southern Appalachians, is now available at local book stores in the area. The Book Nook in Blairsville, GA will hold a book signing on Saturday, September 18, 11

The store is located one block south of the Blairsville Square on Hwy. 19/129. Jeff Hansen, owner of the Book Nook recommends calling the store at 706-745-7076 to reserve copies of this popular

The anthology, edited by Nancy Simpson, author of the poetry collections, Living above the Frost Line, Night Student and Across Water, follows the theme of life in the Appalachians past and present. Many of the best writers south of Asheville and from surrounding counties in Georgia were selected for this book. Robert Morgan, educator and author of the recently published Boone and author of Gap Creek, an Oprah Book Club pick, wrote the introduction. North Carolina fiction writers Lee Smith and Ron NT(Sep15,Z6)SH

Rash wrote tributes for the Bettie Sellers, former Poet Laureate of Georgia, Carole Thompson, published author and poet, from Blairsville and Jo Carolyn Beebe, writer and genealogist from Towns County will be among those signing copies on Saturday.

Nancy Simpson, who is well-known for her years of teaching poetry and mentoring writers, and Brenda Kay Ledford award-winning poet from Hayesville, NC will be there.

Many people are purchasing the book to leave in their vacation cabin or condo for guests to enjoy. Others like the price of only $16 and they buy several for Christmas A photo by Philip Sampson of Blairsville was chosen for the cover from a large number of submissions by artists and photographers throughout the southern Appalachians Inside pictures are by Tipper Pressley of Brasstown and Seth Russell, formerly of Murphy.

Echoes across the Blue Ridge has something for every reader from short stories or non-fiction and poetry with subjects as varied as hunting dogs to reclaiming and restor-

Other well known writers with work in Echoes across the Blue Ridge are Steven Harvey, essayist and professor at Young Harris College, Kathryn Stripling Byer, former Poet Laureate of North Carolina, Gary Carden, storyteller and legendary playwright, and Thomas Rain Crow who has written and published more than twenty of his own works, including Zorro's Field.

Struts Shoe Store conducts fund raiser for Food Pantry

LaRanda Mauldin and Jenny Poole

Hiawassee conducted a Product Drive and Fund Raiser for the Towns County Food Pantry over Labor Day weekend. On Tuesday, Sept. 7 Jenny Poole brought the big box of dry products she collected and Food Pantry needs. Struts Shoe Store offered a discount on your purchase if the needed items were brought in. addition, Jenny turned over a check for $72.38 to LaRanda Mauldin of Food Pantry. Struts Shoe Store offered a $1 raffle entry for a free pair of shoes to raise these funds. Barbara Moss of Blairsville was the recipient of the prize. "I wish it could be more", said Jenny, Owner of Struts Shoe Store. "But every 18 cents buys more food at the wholesale price," replied LaRanda. The Food Pantry fed 317 families the week of 8/17. Look for more upcoming specials and fund raisers at Struts Shoe Store.

Struts is also a donation location for Soles4Souls. Bring by a pair of gently worn shoes to donate to this good cause,

NEED COPY PAPER? West Printing Co. 706-745-6343

Struts Shoe Store in and receive a 10% discount off of a new pair of shoes! N(Sep15G2)

Mountain Shelter News Humane Society Serving Towns

and Union Counties

The Humane Society Mountain Shelter has been serving Towns and Union Counties since 1987. We began with a facility at the Towns County "dump" and in 1999 moved into our building located at 129 Bowling Gap Road. Over the years we have made great strides in continuing to build the organization to help our communities. We'd like to take this opportunity to THANK ALL OF YOU for the continued success of our shelter and thrift stores.

Please keep your eyes out for our insert in October's Blue Ridge EMC billing and help us with spay and neuter for our communities. Our goal is to one day reduce or even eliminate the "throwaway" society of animals.

Puttin' On the Dog is scheduled for October 3rd at Crane Creek Vineyards, come out and join us. You can find all events listed on our website under the calendar section. We'd love to see you there! www.humanesocietymoun-

es. I like to tap on the apples so

Mums the word

Operation PUP

Come out and buy a mum for $5 bucks and up and help local dogs and cats! Fall mums, all colors, small and large, grown locally by English Country Gardens, will be sold on the Hiawassee Town Square on Friday and Saturday, September 17-18, 9 a.m. until 2 p.m. both days. Proceeds will help Towns County citizens spay and neuter cats and dogs - the kindest way to end overpopulation.

The Young Harris College students of Jane Goodall's Roots & Shoots group will be volunteering along side PUP in this worthwhile endeavor. Come out and meet them and learn about their mission. The Towns County Chamber of Commerce will also be on hand on Friday from 10:15 a.m. – 2 p.m. selling "Brats on a Bun" to benefit the Towns County Food Pantry.

So mark your calendars for September 17 and 18 and come on out for some beautiful flowers, good food, conversations, and worthy causes.

Flag Certificates awarded to local Forest Service

L to r: John Preston, Andy Baker, John Campbell and Art Learned

vice Blue Ridge Ranger District and the Brasstown Bald Visitors Center recently received Flag Certificates from the Blue Ridge Mountains Chapter, Sons of the American Revolution commending both entities on properly displaying and flying the American Flag. Making the presentations were Art Learned, Americanism Chairman of the BRM Chapter and John Preston, President of the BRM Chapter. Receiving the Certificates were Andy Baker, District Ranger and John Campbell, Chief Ranger at Brasstown Bald.

The Sons of the American Revolution has a program to locate, identify and present Flag Certificates to schools, organizations and businesses that display the American Flag properly. The certificate contains a Betsy Ross flag that became the standard during the American Revolution and

The USDA Forest Ser- the current 50-State Stars-and-Stripes flag.

The award winning Blue Mountains Chapter, Sons of the American Revolution meets on the third Tuesday of January, March, May, September and November, at The Brother's Restaurant in Young Harris at 6 p.m. Men and boys who are interested in documenting their relationship to their American Revolutionary ancestors and in joining as active group with similar interests, are encouraged to contact the Chapter Secretary, William

The Blue Ridge Mountains Chapter serves the communities at Union, Towns, Rabun, Fannin and Gilmer Counties. Activities include a variety of programs to promote the patriotic, educational and historical interests resulting from the American Revo-

O. (Bud) Brazil at (706)781-

Howard...from page 1

"I will still do some tival, which features the fiddlin' so people will still see Georgia State Fiddlers' Conme around for many more vention. years," he said.

ally known for his fiddling cil Georgia Mountain Fair-

Mayor Barbara Mathis

Cunningham is nation- during the September counmeeting thanked talents and is a fixture at the Cunningham for his years of service and his service as grounds during the Fall Fes- Mayor Pro Tem.

Smith IIII UII...from page 1

ous church activities; she council member. has been active in AARP, Mountain Community Seniors and Eastern Star.

She believes that her experience in government as budget and financial officer, constituents' services and her love and desire to help people have prepared her to be an effective city at (706) 896-2586."

She looks forward to meeting and talking with the voters during the upcoming campaign. "I would appreciate the support of residents and their votes in the Nov. 2 general election," she said. "Please feel free to call her anytime

Congressman Paul Broun

Photo by James Reese

Tenth District Congressman Dr. Paul Broun visited Towns County last Tuesday. He broke away from his busy schedule to be on hand to enthusiastically endorse Stephen Allison for the Georgia House District 8 seat.

Broun attended a barbeque held at the Towns County Recreation Pavilion to promote the candidacy of Allison. He was frequently applauded as he outlined the reasons he believes it is imperative that Allison be elected. "First and foremost",

Broun said, "Allison has accomplished more as a freshman in the House of Representatives than any other newly elected Representative". He was appointed Deputy Whip, a position that always goes to a more experienced legislator. In addition, Allison was appointed Secretary of the Judiciary committee and serves on four

"His legislative accomplishments would be impressive even for an experienced Representative" said Broun. During the recently concluded term of the General Assembly, Allison sponsored or co-sponsored 24 pieces of legislation.

other committees.

Allison has also received a ringing endorsement from the Speaker of the Georgia House of Representatives, David Ralston.

Allison was the first Republican ever elected to the House District 8 seat. In the 2008 general elections he wrestled the seat from long time officeholder Charles Jenkins. District 8 includes Towns, Union, Rabun and part of White counties. T(Sep15,K1)SH

Blairsville Blood Drive

Blood Drive. WHERE: Haralson Civic Center. WHEN: Tuesday, September 28. TIME: 12 p.m.-5 p.m.

Blairsville Community Walk-ins welcome! Appointments preferred! Bring photo ID. All presenting donors have a chance to win a $1,000 gift card! The need is constant. The gratification is instant. Give Blood. redcrossblood.org 1-800 RED-CROSS. N(Sep15,X1)SH

Please donate blood! All blood types needed! Call Betty Easter at 706-745-2335 to make vour appointment today!