TCHS invites community to attend Homecoming festivities

By Shawn Jarrard

Homecoming is a favorite time of year for high schools everywhere – students get to vote on their peers to select Kings and Queens, and alumni return to reminisce about the good old days spent at alma maters.

In Towns County, where the high school holds both a Homecoming and a Basketball Homecoming, the fall event is an opportunity to thank the community at large for their support of the children year after year.

For the second year running, Towns County High will be hosting a Homecoming Carnival the day before the big Homecoming Game.

This year's carnival will be Thursday, Oct. 12, from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. on the track in Frank McClure Memorial Stadium at the high school.

To highlight the special thank you to the community, all activities at the carnival will be provided free of charge, excluding concessions.

"We invite the whole community and all the schools and students," said TCHS Principal Dr. Connie Hobbs. "We have local clubs, organizations and sporting teams that will be setting up booths for games for students to play, and there will be prizes.

"We have three big inflatables, one for the elementary age kids and the other two are for older students. We have a live band, Steven Phillips and Midnight Express, performing from 6:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m."

Festivities on Thursday will begin with an introduction of the 2017 Homecoming Court, and the 2017 Football Homecoming King will be crowned.

After that, the carnival kicks in with at least 30 games, a petting zoo, music, free popcorn and snow cones, and plenty more family-friendly fun.

Food will be available for purchase from the school concessions stand, and an ice cream truck will also be onsite for those looking for a wider variety of frozen treats.

At 7:30 p.m., the school will light a bonfire for everyone

Hiwassee – It's no secret – the Georgia Mountain Fairgrounds' Fall Festival is all about music, local arts and crafts, and history.

On Friday, Oct. 13, the festival returns complete with crafts, demonstrations of old-timey ways, and a Pioneer Village full of vendors and exhibits, with folks anxious to show off why they're here.

"We have the Nergers' Tigers," said Georgia Mountain Fairgrounds General Manager Hilda Thomason. "They are going to have 12 Bengal Tigers, including two White Tigers. All of that's new. There will be three shows a day.

"Then we also have the helicopter rides on the weekends. We've had that before," she said. "Then we have some new arts and crafts.

Blacksmithing is one of the many live demonstrations of pioneer crafts available at the annual Fall Festival.

We have a great new pottery lady that's coming, Donna Kay from Helen, Georgia. She goes around the lake and picks up driftwood and collects it and puts it on the pottery. It's so unique and different from Blairsville – Save the date – Saturday, Oct. 14.

A Salute to America's Veterans Concert is scheduled for 6:20 p.m. at the Union County Fine Arts Center on that date.

The concert, sponsored by the Vietnam Veterans of America, Blairsville Chapter, features Sld Orr and The Tunnel Rats, who perform Vietnam era classic Bluegrass, Country Music and ballads.

Also performing, the Union County High School Chorus.

"(VVA President) Ray

Tiburksi and I were listening to a CD of the Tunnel Rats and we sat there and listened to it, and when it was finished, we said, 'we have to bring this to town,'" said Past VVA President Mike Priven. "That's how this concert started.

"We (VVA) were looking for another project to do to honor veterans, we knew we could use the venue (Fine Arts Center) for music," Priven said. "It just all clicked at once."

Priven said The Tunnel Rats are a unique collaboration of individuals from different decades whose paths crossed at a Bluegrass jam, changing their journey forever. Their common love for music and desire to help others provided the energy and diverse input resulting in Vietnam: The Journey Continues.

"It is pretty much Bluegrass, Country Music, and ballads that (The Tunnel Rats) will perform," Priven said. "And, of course, the Union County High School Chorus will perform patriotic songs."

As for The Tunnel Rats, Libby Wilson is fulfilling a lifelong dream of writing songs, and performing in a Bluegrass band. As a talented songwriter, she paints a vivid and compelling picture with her

Now in its 10th year, the Towns County Transit continues to be uniquely positioned to help residents in need.

Too often, older or disabled residents don't have the transportation they require to venture out for doctor appointments or to buy groceries.

Enter Towns County Transit.

For just $2 for the first mile, then 40 cents a mile after that, Towns County residents can go wherever in the county their errands might take them.

Each stop is $2 and each trip home is $2, with a trip to Blairsville costing $6 each way.
