Towns County Herald

Wednesday, January 31, 2018

50 Cents
www.townscountyherald.net
Legal Organ of Towns County

---

Chris Clinton celebrates 10 years leading sheriff’s office

By Shawn Jarrard
Towns County Herald
Staff Writer

Towns County Sheriff Chris Clinton has created a new tradition in the Towns County Courthouse.

In short, the community has never been safer thanks to Sheriff Clinton and his rate-accredited sheriff’s office in guarding the lives and properties of Towns County.

---

Motel shooting leaves one injured and one in custody

By Shae Jarrard
Towns County Herald
Assistant Editor

The Georgia Bureau of Investigation was called to investigate the shooting.

As the investigation continues, Sheriff Chris Wiggins, with the help of Christopher Cody Wiggins, the GBI and the City of Hiawassee, are following up on leads and scene and sentenced the alleged shooter. The victim, 40-year-old Lee County of Young Harris, was transported by ambulance to Northeast Georgia Medical Center with a bullet wound to the arm.

---

County Grand Jury Indictments

By News Staff
Towns County Herald

The following individuals were indicted during the January Term of the Towns County Grand Jury.

---

For example, Sheriff Clinton has created a new tradition in the Towns County Courthouse.