Liquor...continued from Page 1

Mayor Barbara Mathis

this said the City has received numerous requests for licenses for both the retail sale of liquor and for liquor by the drink at local restaurants in Hiawassee.

"Many city residents feel that they should have the same opportunity to purchase drinks at dinner as now takes place within many restaurants in Towns County," said Mathis. "The availability of liquor is not unusual, as our surrounding cities and counties have retail stores and liquor by the drink.

"The Council supports our city residents having the opportunity to decide this issue through a city referendum," Mathis said. "If people of the City of Hiawassee want to purchase alcohol or go to a nice restaurant and sit down and enjoy a drink with their meal, they are going to find a place to do it. "I just think it would be good if they could do that here at home and keep the taxes paid here in the City," she said.

Hiawassee City Manager Rick Stancil said liquor sales would generate new businesses and tax revenues within the city – revenue that is now going to neighbors and fellow local governments.

'Regardless of personal or individual beliefs regarding drinking, the reality is that Hiawassee restaurants and businesses are losing needed revenue," Stancil said. "This issue will be decided by city voters at the ballot box and I am sure there will be many good points made, pro and con.

According to Stancil, the adoption of a resolution by the Hiawassee City Council is the first step in a long process leading to residents of Hiawassee voting on the issue.

'Hiawassee will be having public meetings to further discuss this issue and we'll keep the public informed," said Stancil.

For more details about the referendum, contact Mayor Mathis or Stancil at (706) 896-

Fire Corps...continued from Page 1

Rescue Team with monies diales. donated.

dive team for the upcoming summer season on the lake, said Ordiales. The Fire Corps are making big plans to have a county-wide yard sale, Saturday, May They are asking for a $10 donation to reserve a space to unload that 'stuff' you've been meaning to clean out from the storage shed, garage, and attic as well as doing your part to help support this worthwhile organization. They will even have a table available for your use for an additional $5.

Back by popular demand, during this event only, are the famous Smoked Boston Butts that at one time was an annual tradition of Station 2 Fire House in Young Harris.

Just smelling them as you drove past was enough to set your mouth to watering, and now you will have the opportunity to experience that tantalizing taste sensation once

Ordiales reports that they are taking pre-orders and will be delivering them at the Towns County Square on May 25th just in time for Memorial Day a fully cooked and ready to eat, 8 to 10-pound smoked Boston

Butt," she said. "You can't beat that price and your helping support the Fire Corps as well," said Or-

out. There were many smiles

"It is wonderful to see on the faces of our children,

so many people come together to promote reading. We would like to express our gratitude to all who helped make this event said Moss.

To 'save your butt,' call "This will well equip our Fire House 1 at (706) 896-2090 or Fire House 2 at (706) 379-3060.

> Get that order in early as these folks have been saving butts for a long time. If you call too late, you may lose your butt on this deal.

> The Fire Corps is also in the early planning stages to bring back their annual Chili This will be held on the square in Hiawassee on Sept. Start marking your calendars, as these folks are out there working real hard to support the local fire department. 'Since its inception, the Fire Corps has supported the fire department with fund raising activities for needed equipment, assistance with clerical and office duties, sprucing up our fire stations, and providing firefighter appreciation," said Ordiales. Towns County Fire Chief Mitch Floyd said, "This group of dedicated citizens is a valuable and appreciated asset for the Towns County Fire/Rescue Department."

The Fire Corps is a nonprofit organization that depends solely on fundraisers and the generous donations from the community

Anyone interested in becoming a Fire Corps member should call (706) 896-2171 or send an email to tcfirecorps@gmail.com.

a great success," she said.

According to Dr. Seuss,

Happy birthday Dr. Seuss

"You're never too old, too wacky, too wild, to pick up a and thank you for making read-book and read with a child.

ing so much fun.

Title...continued from Page 1

"The biggest misconception has been that some homework and are really up folks thought we had a part in this new title tax law, and I just want them to know that we had no say in it. It affects cess for us though." said Rogall of us the same way it does days of training on this, one folks according to Rogers. February, but the girls here in the office have done their on this and know what they are doing," he said. " It's still a learning pro-

Rogers said that the only them," said Rogers.

Rogers said that the only real issue is that people are not fully understanding how this in January and another in new tax works and the girls are having to do some explain- talk to Rogers. ing to customers when they come in.

"Everybody has been real good about this once its explained to them and we've really not had any complaints or major problems at this time," said Rogers.

For more details on the new changes to TAVT or how it works, you can stop in and

He wants county residents to know that he has an open door policy and will be glad to talk with you about any concerns you may have.

You can also contact the Georgia Department of Revenue-Motor Vehicle Division at (855) 406-5221 or visit their Web site at www.newtitletax.com.

Arbor Day...continued from page 1

efficient renewable resource,' said Harkins. "We can't live without trees. We depend on them for the air we breathe, for shelter, and to help keep our water clean."

Harkins explained that trees also help reduce soil erosion, clean the air and reduce air pollution, create wildlife and plant diversity, as well reducing home heating and cooling costs.

He told the students that Georgia leads the nation in the number of trees planted, amount of forested land, as well as production of tree products.

Also present for this celebration and tree planting were representatives of the Hiawassee Garden Club, president Diann Nichols and Joan Crothers, Girl Scout Troop Leader Laranda Mauldin, as well as Bo Berry and Blake Melton of the Georgia Forestry Commission (Blairsville office). The HGC sponsors

Troop 11501 and they hold their weekly meetings at the Garden Club building.

Troop Leader Laranda and Girl Scout Troop 11501 celebrated Arbor Day by learning about the importance of trees in each community. The girls were the guests of the Hiawassee Garden Club. Photo/Libby Shook to the reaction from the fans when they performed their first number one hit, One, which according to Hutton was their first hit to be Certified Gold.

Oncert...continued from Page 1

Aaron and Mary Ann Walkover of Calhoun have been fans since the band's

In fact, Aaron boasts that he has seen them in concert about 40 times all over the country

I first saw them when I was 16 years old in West Palm Beach, Fla. I won a ticket from a local radio station. It was the first concert I had ever been to and I loved them and I've been attending their concerts ever since," said Aaron Walkover.
This bigger than life group has wowed fans of all ages since 1968 when Hutton and Cory Wells first started the band after a "Sonny & Cher Tour" brought them together

"Cory and I bonded on the tour and met up again in 1968 and decided to start Three Dog Night," Hutton said.

Three Dog Night has been performing and knocking the socks off fans ever since.

Meanwhile, the opening act left an impression on the crowd, and an impression on Three Dog Night.

From the moment they stepped out on stage, Modern Vinyl owned it.

They put on a show Las Vegas style with their classic rock hits You Really Got Me, Born to Be Wild, Superstition, and Foxy Lady.

But when they performed The Beatles' Come Together, they had the crowd in the palm of their hand.

Folks were up dancing

Blairsville's Modern Vinyl might soon have an aspiring young band opening for them. They put on a show Saturday night in Hiawassee at Anderson Music Hall. Photo/Libby Shook in the aisles, snapping photos, screaming, and wildly applauding this up and coming young Rock band.

Everybody was amazed at the talent Modern Vinyl brought to the stage.

They've got the sound; they've got the look, they've got the moves; and after Saturday's performance, they've definitely got a much broader fan-base.

There was just no quit in them and they definitely left the crowd wanting more.

This is definitely a band to contend with and Connie Marcos of Norcross said. "They were awesome. They will have somebody opening for them before too much longer."

Betty Elliott of Gaines- singer Cory Wells when he ville said, "I wonder it I nree Dog Night can top this?"

This was the general consensus of the fans as they stood around talking about how talented Modern Vinyl was as they waited for Three Dog Night to come out on stage.

Phillip Newman of Conyers said, "It's not often you hear a band of this magnitude and talent as an opening tough act to follow, even for Three Dog Night.

But the best was yet to come for Modern Vinyl as they received quite an endorsement from Three Dog Night's lead

What do you think about Modern Vinyl? "They have to be a lot older than they look," he said.

"That's a sound from the early "I said to myself, 'The Beatles, really'. They are just too good to be a band from today," Wells said. "They must have morphed here from the early days."

How many open-They were definitely a ing acts get an endorsement that huge from one of Rock musics legendary bands? All in all, this was a great night of entertainment and a dooropening performance by local talents, Modern Vinyl.

Grant...continued from page 1

Read...continued from Page 1

"We are proud to work with ExxonMobil Educational Alliance to make learning fun for the young people in the communities we serve in the fields of math and science,"

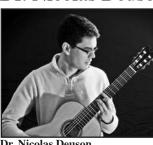

These grants are designed to help schools purchase supplemental learning tools such as science lab supplies, iPads, graphing calculators. or to fund math and science related field trips.

chosen school is funded by the cational Alliance is designed to provide fuel retailers with an opportunity to invest in the future of their communities through grants to neighborhood

The $500 grant for each

Dr. Nicolas Deuson in concert at YHC

Dr. Nicolas Deuson

Young Harris College's Division of Fine Arts will present a special performance by classical guitarist Nicolas André Deuson, D.M.A., as part of the "Sutherland Concert Series" Sunday, March 17, at 3 p.m. in Susan B. Harris Chapel on the YHC campus. The concert is free and open to the public.

Guest artist Dr. Deuson is in demand as both a solo performer and chamber musician. First prize winner of the 2010

ExxonMobil Corporation.

The ExxonMobil Edu-

ExxonMobil's Educational Alliance Program has helped ExxonMobil Corporation to contribute $2 million to schools in 45 states and the District of Columbia.

Pacific Guitar Competition, he studied under John Sutherland at the University of Georgia, with Jason Vieaux at the Cleveland Institute of Music and with Scott Tennant at the University of Southern California. He will present a varied program of literature from the solo classical guitar repertoire. The "Sutherland Concert Series" at Young Harris College was established in honor of world-renowned guitar instructor John Sutherland and his legacy of educational and artistic excellence. Described by the Journal-Constitution Atlanta as the "Dean of Guitarists," Sutherland was responsible for initiating numerous guitar programs in the state, including those at the University of Georgia, Georgia State University, Dekalb College and Columbus State University.

Doug Berky Theatre at The Peacock Playhouse

Want to experience something truly memorable with your kids? Well, pry the video game controller out of their hands, turn off the TV, get out of the house and come to The Peacock Playhouse, Sunday, March 17th at 2 p.m. Why? Because Doug Berky, original story-teller, performer and giant mask maker will be there to perform and en-

Doug Berky has taken his craft to arts festivals, schools, libraries, museums and performing arts centers all across the country and world-wide. Enhancing his story-telling with the visual aid of giant mask puppets, he has designed and created himself, his performances inspire comments like this, "Doug's performance provided much more than hysterical laughter and good entertainment...it awakened imagination, inspired creativity and instilled appreciation for theatre arts.' (Darke County Center for the Arts, Ohio).

He's engaging, entertaining, inspiring and imaginative. He's Doug Berky. Come spend some truly quality time with your family at The Peacock Playhouse, Sunday, March 17th at 2 p.m.

Tickets are $10 for adults and $5 for children, and are available by calling The Peacock Playhouse at 828-389-2787 or by visiting one of these fine mer-Tiger's/Chinquapins, chants: Hayesville, The Curiosity Shop, Murphy and Anderson's, Hiawassee.

Clay County Historical and Arts Arts Council, a division of the tional Endowment for the Arts.

The Doug Berky Theater Council. This project received Department of Cultural Resourc-performance is sponsored by the support from the North Carolina es, with funding from the Na-

Indian Raider Marching Band to travel to Savannah

Our Indian Raider Marching Band has been invited to perform in the annual Saint Patrick's Day Parade in Savannah, Georgia on March 16th. The band, along with several chaperones, will be travelling to Savannah on Friday, March 15th, arriving in time for a private trolley tour of the city. The music our band has selected for the parade was donated to the TCHS Band by its arranger, Ken Dye, Professor of Music and Director of Bands at Notre Dame University. His composition incorporates our TCHS Alma Mater 'Wearin' O The Green" with "When Irish Eyes Are Smiling" for an outstanding musical selection for this event. The band is led by Band Director Mr. Frank McKinney, Color Guard Sponsor Mrs. Lisa Sofield, Band Captain Celeena Corbin, Drum Captain Nat Arnold, and Guard Captain Kori Sofield. The Indian Raider Band will return on Sunday, March 17th.

The Saint Patrick's Day Parade in Savannah is the second largest parade in the world. Some of the traditional events include the Investiture of the Grand Marshal, Greening of the Fountain in Forsyth Park, Tara Feis, Celtic Cross Mass and Ceremony, and Sergeant William Jasper Green Ceremony. On the morning of the parade, Mass is held at the Cathedral of Saint John the Baptist in historic downtown Savannah. Stepping off at 10:15 a.m. sharp, the threehour parade consists of over 350 units, including several U.S. military divisions, many award-winning bands, and the world-famous Budweiser Clydesdales. Some of the bands include the 282nd U.S. Army Band (Fort Jackson, S.C.), The Old Guard Fife and Drum Corps (Fort Myers, VA), U.S. Coast Guard Pipes and Drums, Irish Air Corps Pipes and Drums (Dublin, Ireland), and many more outstanding marching units. T(Mar13,F4)SH