Soccer: Lady Indians honor their own with end of year banquet

The Towns County Lady Indians Soccer Team held its end of the year banquet and recognition ceremony at The Lodge at McConnell Baptist Church the evening of Monday, May 9.

Coaches first recognized all players and pointed out how each of them is a valuable and necessary part of the program.

"We recognized All-Region award winners next," Head Coach Clay Livingston said. "Each coach can nominate as many players as they wish but cannot vote for their own players."

"I felt like we should have had more players on it and a couple should have garnered more votes, but overall, we had a strong showing considering the two state finalists are in our region."

First Team All-Region:

Sarah Shook, Rylie Livingston and Drew Livingston.

Second Team All-Region: Gali Quijada, Miranda Spain and Rylie Livingston.

All-Region Honorable Mention: Bazya Smith, Laura Mauldin, Elizabeth Edwards and Alana Stowers.

Next the Lady Indians received team awards: MVP Miranda Spain; Offensive MVP Sarah Shook; Defensive MVP Rylie Livingston; Dirt-head Award Halie Arrowood; and Dirthead Award Emma Lallement.

"We finished by handing out Final Four patches from last year," Coach Livingston said. "It was a great night. We are very thankful for McConnell and all of their support."

"I'd like to thank Kaila Reece for the job she did this year, not only on the field, but everything she does for our athletes at Towns County. I have to thank Dr. Berrong, Mr. Perren and Coach Melton for all of their support.

"The community as a whole and of course our parents are amazing. Last but not least, I want to thank my wife Sherri for being an amazing and supportive coach's wife."

Five senior soccer players are graduating this month: Macy Brinson, Rylie Livingston, Gali Quijada, Miranda Spain and Bazya Smith. Although their leadership will be missed next season, they are leaving behind a remarkable legacy that will help shape the 2022-23 roster.

"Now it is time to start preparing and getting ready to have another amazing season next year," Livingston said.

Go Lady Indians!

Head Coach Shea Taylor would like to thank the ladies for committing such hard work and dedication to the team, and he wishes his seniors the best as they approach graduation this week.

Chatuge Shores Ladies Golf League

Chatuge Shores Ladies Golf May 10 Play Day Results.

The Chatuge Shores Ladies Golf Association (CSLGA) played on May 10 on another stunning spring day. There was a smaller group than normal as folks are getting back into the swing of things (forgive the pun), but Geni Preece's birthday was celebrated after the round and fun was had by all.

The game was Even Stevens which uses the score from only the holes with even numbers. Results for the first flight were first place Bonnie Shore and second place Geni Preece. Results for the second flight, were first place Vicky Healy and second place Holly Cox. Lowest Putts went to Bonnie Shore, then Linda Robinson and Geni Preece tied for second lowest putts. Bonnie Shore also had a chip in on hole #6 and Linda Robinson had a chip in as well. Birdies were achieved by Bonnie Shore with two, one on hole 3 and one on hole 6; and Holly Cox had her first ever birdie on hole 3.

The league will host the new Mountain Ladies Golf League next month on June 13 and have its regular play day on Tuesday, June 14. "It's always a fun day when we can get out and play with friends - new and old", Vicky Healy, President. CSLGA plays every Tuesday at Chatuge Shores Golf Course 260

Golf Course Rd, Hayesville, NC 28904. Tee time is 9 AM. The league has 24 members from throughout the tri-county area and includes golfers of all skill levels.

If you are not a member, but are interested in joining, please email our President, Vicky Healy at vhealy55@gmail.com. The league web site at www.chatugeshoreslga.com.
